

Problem Solving Strategies for Parents

Back to Meeting Planner's

Tired of arguments over dirty bedrooms or poor homework habits? This is not just another parenting workshop, but an intense, enjoyable, content rich experience. Regardless of whether you are a new parent or a seasoned parent of teens, you'll find the tools you need to improve your family relationships and increase peaceful cooperation. This interactive session provides proven step by step methods to resolve persistent problems which engage cooperation in a climate of respect. Boost your communication skills in this parent-friendly presentation. If you're serious about helping your children and creating a happy family life - this seminar is for YOU.

Want this program?

Book Marilyn Now –

Call her office at 248-348-1023